

PRN Music Therapy Positions

Weekend hours available immediately, with possible hours during the week.

Paid hourly, $20 - $23.50

Laurel Ridge is a treatment center offering a variety of behavioral healthcare services. Programs include acute programs for children, adolescents and adults, and residential treatment for children and adolescents. Laurel Ridge also houses the Military Resilience Units for active duty service members suffering from PTSD and chemical dependency problems.

The 252-bed facility is located on 18 acres in San Antonio, Texas. The facility includes a school building, gymnasium, recreational facility, playground, swimming pool, and challenge course.

Contact the Laurel Ridge Treatment Center Human Resources Department for more information and application.